

Hydro rates are changing soon.

We want to give you information about these changes as soon as they are available which will likely be in late April. To learn more about how rate changes may affect you, please visit:

► innpower.ca/localrates

InnPower is proud to deliver local power to spark the success of our community today and in the future. We will send more detailed information about rate changes in a future bill. In the meantime visit innpower.ca/localrates for ideas on how to save energy and take advantage of our many conservation programs.
